

Bethany Church Finaghy Consent Form for Transporting Children

The safe transport of children and young people is paramount.

Parents should ensure arrangements are in place for the safe transport (including delivery to and collection from Bethany Church activities) of their children or young people at the pre-arranged times.

At times Bethany Church will provide transport for children and young people to and from their homes. Transport may be in a minibus, car or private coach. All drivers will follow Bethany Church policy for transporting Children and Young People. Further information on the Bethany Church policy for transporting Children and Young People is available on request.
